

Enter now for the Kiwi Cup!

Sailability Auckland is hosting the inaugural Glenn Family Foundation Kiwi cup IFDS and Access Open World Championships. To be sailed in the Access Liberty. The Cup is for disabled and able bodied sailors. So enter now!

Time is running out to take part in the Gold or Silver fleet. The event commences on January 24, with competition from 26 – 31 January 2009.

It is an exciting time in the 'City of Sails', as Auckland's fondly referred to, because hot on the heels of the Kiwi cup is the Louis Vuitton Pacific Series and that means four America's Cup yachts will be practicing out on the water while the Kiwi Cup is underway.

It's also Auckland Anniversary day on the 26th and the harbour will be a symphony of sails with yachts of all shapes and sizes taking part in the 169th Year of the Auckland Anniversary regatta. The festivities even include a crowd pleasing Tug Boat race!

The Glenn Family Foundation Kiwi Cup is a regatta not to be missed so don't be disappointed enter today in either the amateur Silver fleet, or the more experienced Gold fleet. The Royal New Zealand Yacht Squadron that have run the on the water racing for two previous America's Cup are conducting the on-the-water racing.

It's a great time of the year to visit New Zealand in the height of summer Auckland city will be buzzing, especially down at the waterfront at the Kiwi cup headquarters which is at the former Team New Zealand America's Cup base. That means entrants in the Louis Vuitton series – Emirates Team New Zealand, BMW Oracle, Alinghi and nine other America's cup teams - will be our neighbours for the week.

So come on sailors.... Book those flights and enter the Kiwi Cup now!

More information available at <http://www.sailabilityauckland.org.nz/kiwicup.html>

International Access
Class Association

International Association for Disabled Sailing